

Honoring Belgium's Heroic Cardinal: Teuton Submarines Prepare for End: Marshal in Mufti

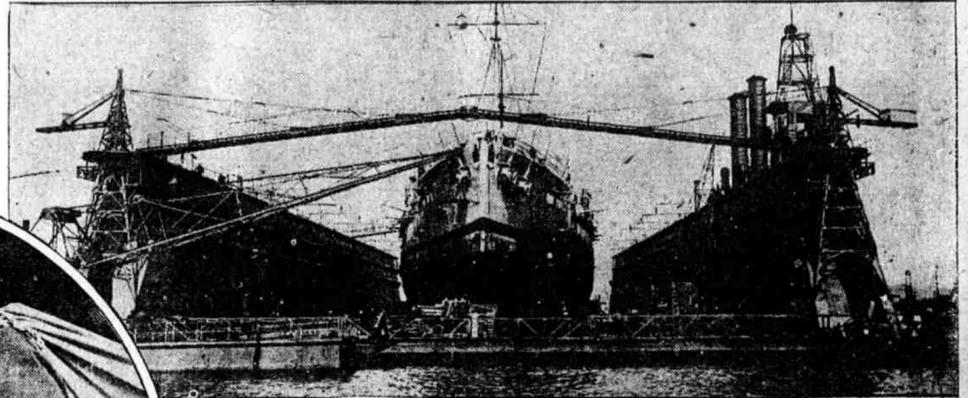

©U. 20.

CARDINAL MERCIER, who is soon to visit the United States, greeting President Poincaré of France and King Albert of the Belgians in the archway of the Cathedral of Malines. This was one of the impressive moments in the course of the victory celebrations in Belgium.

Photos © Keystone V.C.

FIRST VIEWS to arrive direct from Germany since the war. Above is the German submarine fleet in Kiel Canal preparing for the surrender to the Allies. At the right is a huge floating dry-dock, during the war, holding a Teuton battleship. The dock has since been sold to the Netherlands for 18,000,000 marks.

MARSHAL FOCH, in civilian clothes, with his grandchildren, spending his first vacation in five years on his estate in Brittany, France.

Ledger Photo Service

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARY JOSEPHYN COMERFORD, Swarthmore and Felton streets, Ridley Park, Pa. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

MEN AND WOMEN, eager to get supplies below the prevailing high prices, buying surplus United States army foodstuffs offered for sale at cost under the direction of the market commission, at Gimbel Brothers' store, as part of a plan to reduce the living expenses. In the circle above purchasers with sacks and bags carrying away their supplies.